

SOCIAL MEDIA & COMMUNICATIONS

AFRICAN CULTURAL FOUNDATION - AFRICULT

Founded in 1997 the African Cultural Foundation (formerly African Cultural Promotion) are a advocacy organization working to create more educational, political and particiaptory opportunities for Africans in the Diaspora and Africa.

WE'RE HIRING!

YOUR TASKS

- Writing promotional texts and content-relevant articles for websites, blogs, press distribution lists, newsletters, etc.
- Promoting our workshops and events on social media
- Target group-oriented marketing online/social media
- Social media management and influencer marketing
- Creating memes, sharepics, videos, etc.
- Crowdfunding & Communication with journalists
- Support and coordination of all social media platforms
- Creating content for web and print in consultation with the team

QUALIFICATIONS & SKILLS

- Good knowledge of German and English
- Very good IT skills
- Interest in societal, social and political political issues in Africa
- Organisational skills
- Independence and flexibility
- team spirit,
- Self-organisation

WHAT WE OFFER

- Room for own ideas
- Flat hierarchy and flexible working hours
- Working in an association that is in the process of being built up
- Working in a highly ambitious team
- Home office as far as possible and desired, possibly also remote work

Applications are accepted by email only, but we welcome creative applications: Video etc.

Visit our website for more Details:
www.africancultural-foundation.org
office@african-culturalfund.org

